TELBORG

November 04, 2026

November 03, 2026

EU Commission releases 2026 Türkiye enlargement report

The European Commission released its 2026 Türkiye Enlargement Report, assessing Türkiye’s accession progress and policy alignment across political, economic, climate, security and sectoral chapters. The report cites major figures including EUR 12.5 billion in refugee support since 2011, a EUR 6.9 billion justice budget for 2026, and USD 1.9 billion in privatisation receipts in 2025.

Telborg Council of the EU

European Commission unveils 2027 work programme priorities

The European Commission has announced its 2027 work programme, outlining EU priorities on competitiveness, climate, defence, digital policy and social rights. It says its simplification measures could save EUR 22.3 billion annually, while also proposing new initiatives including a critical raw materials corporation and an AI action blueprint across five industrial sectors.

Telborg Council of the EU

COP31 presidency outlines Türkiye climate priorities

The COP31 presidency has announced its main Action Agenda priorities ahead of the November 9–20, 2026 climate summit in Antalya, Türkiye. The agenda centers on electrification, clean energy, zero waste, ecosystem protection, and resilient cities, with dual leadership by Chris Bowen and Murat Kurum.

Telborg Environmental and Energy Study Institute

Hydrogen Europe and NZIH publish data centre hydrogen guide

Hydrogen Europe and the Net Zero Innovation Hub for Data Centers have published a practical guide on scaling hydrogen infrastructure for Europe’s data centres, including availability, geography, and price. The guide cites pilot-scale near-term deployment, 677 MW of operating electrolyzer capacity in Europe, and renewable hydrogen production costs of €4 to €14/kg.

Telborg Hydrogen Europe