TELBORG

November 06, 2026

November 05, 2026

Return secures €835 million battery storage financing in Germany

Hogan Lovells Cadwalader said it advised Return on a €835 million portfolio financing for battery storage projects in Germany. The financing was underwritten by Deutsche Bank and Rabobank and covers three projects totaling 117 MW, with Return planning at least 1 GW of annual storage installations from 2027.

Telborg Hogan Lovells

NCCETC releases Q3 2026 power decarbonization report

The NC Clean Energy Technology Center released its Q3 2026 50 States of Power Decarbonization report on state and utility actions. The report tracks 497 actions across 49 states and Puerto Rico and cites large planned resource changes, including 74,937 MW of natural gas and 69,670 MW of solar.

Telborg NC Clean Energy Technology Center

EIB survey finds Czechs prioritize energy prices and nuclear

The European Investment Bank published its eighth Climate Survey on Czechia, highlighting that Czechs prioritize stable energy prices, energy independence, and nuclear power. The article also cites EIB financing of €598 million in Czechia in 2025, including a €400 million ČEZ Distribution grid upgrade project enabling up to 5.5 GW of renewable capacity.

Telborg European Investment Bank

TELB RG